CONTROL OF NORWAY WATER CO. IN NEW HANDS

The management of the Norway Water Co. was changed at the annual meeting of the stockholders, last Monday. Its affairs have been placed in new hands. The stock vote was decisive. 707 shares were cast for a new board of directors and 334 for the old board. All the shares but 159 were represented at the meeting. The retiring officer was tendered the usual courtesies and thanks for long continued services in the company.

Directors elected were: Albert J. Stearns, John B. Payson of Portland; George F. Hathaway, H. Walter Brown, F. B. Deuster, M. W. Sampson and J. M. Huston of Norway.
The directors organized by electing A. J. Stearns, president; John B. Payson, vice president; Thomas M. Huston, Treasurer and manager, and Fred E. Smith, clerk.
The report showed that the finances of the company were in good shape. Some five thousand dollars has been accumulated in the past two years. No dividends have been paid to the stockholders since 1917. The surplus earnings have been used in paying for an oilburning pump and in the operation of which a large saving has been made. The company has a bonded debt of $25,000.00 and it may have been the idea of paying up this debt instead of paying dividends that caused the change of management.

Several hundred shares of stock have changed hands. The new board, headed by Mr. Stearns and about forty cents on the dollar, par value, was paid.

Cellars at the Noyes Block, the Hawkins house, and at Chas. F. Bidon's store were flooded early this week. Probably from a break along the city water main.

The water company crew spent some time in locating the spot, being forced to pick through frozen earth of considerable thickness.

With the thermometer 13 below zero, Wednesday morning, Mildred Huff and Wilma Calif were out bright and early delivering the papers on their paper route.

Ten below zero and a gale blowing Friday morning caused a suspension of school activities. "No school" signal was sounded on the fire alarm at 8.05.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Greenleaf have moved into the Porter house on Water street. Since the Hathaway block fire they had rooms at Chas. F. Bidon's.

Mrs. Elbridge Gammon and Miss Lizzie Gammon have moved to the village for the remainder of the winter. They will live with Mr. and Mrs. Leon G. Newcomb.

John Woodman: "It is a good town, nice quiet people live in Fryeburg. I got my wife there and since she left you can hear a pin drop all over town it's so still."

Mrs. W. H. Kilgore, who has been ill several weeks, is gaining.

Mickey Clements, the local boxer, knocked out O. K. Comeau of New York, Friday night, while mixing things in the preliminaries, at City Hall in Lewiston. Comeau lasted three rounds but was severely injured in the last.

Heard in the postoffice: "Where is Steve?" meaning Steve Cummings, who is a regular attendant at the morning arrival of mail. "Steve, Steve, Astronave, Steve of the Cummings home, where is he? A voice in the rear says: "The president is overworked preparing for the coming eclipse and you will have to excuse him. I'm carrying the mail now." It was George Cullinan who spoke.

Isaac W. Abbott at the falls, the oldest man in town, celebrated his 92nd birthday, on Friday, and received calls who left gifts and greetings. Many post cards were sent by those unable to call. A fine birthday cake illuminated with candles was among the surprises. Mr. Abbott festured his hip eight years ago and has been confined to his room most of the time, under the tender care of his daughter, Miss Louise Abbott. Mr. Abbott's mind is kept active and his courage is good, but just waiting for springtime, when he hopes to enjoy the sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Burke and son, Roger, of Augusta, Me., have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Allen.

Madelyn Hayden entertained a group of friends from the telephone exchange at the Hayden cottage on the lake, Saturday. The party journeyed to their destination on snow-shoes and made merry preparing dimer furnished by the hostess. Members of the party included Louise Walton, Edna Webber, Velma Frank, and the hostess.

The little Emmons girl who was operated on for appendicitis at the Nurses' Hospital, is recovering rapidly. A blood count by Dr. Nelson disclosed the immediate need of an operation which she performed, being assisted by the two nurses.

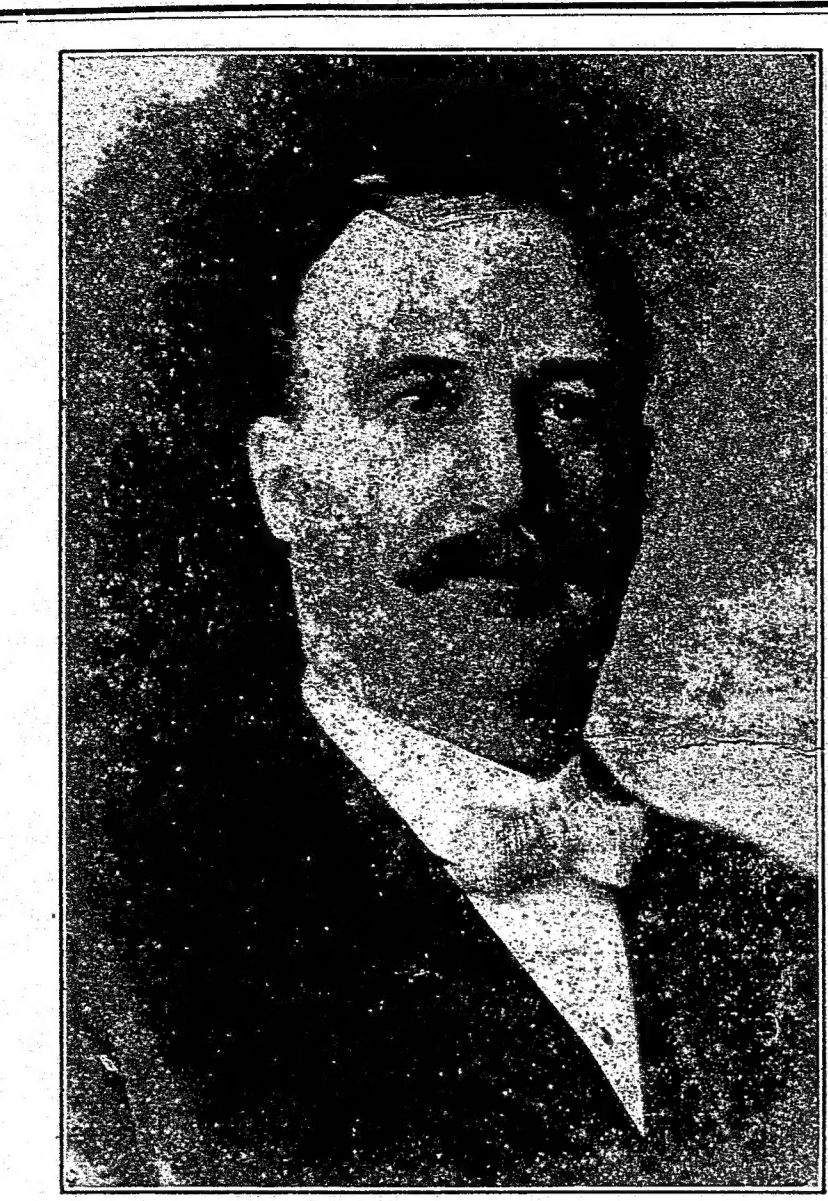

The thermometer sat 22 below, Wednesday morning. Being calm and clear the real condition was much appreciated within doors but something real outside.

A good number of fans attended the Bethel-South Paris basketball game, Tuesday evening. It is expected Bethel may have a season with the Norway Athletic Club in the near future.

Frank Kimball of Freeport was in town, Monday, on business.

VIVIAN W. HILLS

The oldest merchant in Norway in length of years in the same line of business with the same firm name is Vivian W. Hills, jeweler and optician. To be exact, watch repairing and the jewelry business was turned over, in 1919, to Bert L. Hutchins, his former assistant, who has been in the business since that time. Hutchins has been in the business since 1919, but instead of paying dividends that caused the change of management.

Sporting Column

Boxing Exhibition
Two hundred and more were crowded into the Armory, Monday evening, for four bouts staged by Company C, Maine National Guard.

"Flame" Tompkins and Roy "Buster" Young went on for the curtain raiser but this was of short duration. "Flame" forced the issue and "Buster" wind failed to function after a lively scrimmage. The boys were called out.

Paul Holden of Norway and Kid Croteau of Paris Hill put on a six-round tilt of two minutes each. Holden is a lively youngster and nifty with the mitts. He forced Croteau into a busy session defending himself. Holden had a considerable margin of points.

Haskell of North Norway and Bruce Hosmer went six rounds in good form. This was an exhibition of long range punching mixed with inside slaps and cuffs. Hosmer received pretty stiff upper cuts and straight-from-the-shoulder punches, and Haskell failed to escape some particularly vicious blows. There was a strong tendency to play rough and the boys were pulled from several clinches by referee Clements. The six-round was a whirlwind, with jabs and punches of the hazing variety.

"Reggie" Dyer of Norway and Young Kibbitt of South Paris, formerly of Lewiston, put up a good article in a six-round fracas. The boys were pulled from several clinches by referee Clements. The six-round was a whirlwind, with jabs and punches of the hazing variety.

Johnson has several knockouts to his credit and "Mickey" Clements, who is now in town to sell phonographs and records, and first to open a kodak agency. He owned the first gas car in town way back in 1906. The machine was a Pope Hartford "Red Devil" with one lung, but could be heard miles away. Wireless started a bee in his bonnet, and he was the second jeweler in Maine to install a set for picking up time signals from the Arlington station at Washington, D. C. When first set running, the machine created more emotion than the modern Valentino and is going strong today to it regulates the town clock that keeps Norway on the map.

Mr. Hills was president of the New England Association of Optometrists until it was succeeded by State organizations. He is charter member of the Maine Optometrist Association instituted in 1891 of which he has been vice-president several times, and this month was elected one of the directors. He is a Past Master of Oxford Lodge F. & A. M., member of other Masonic bodies including the Shrine at Lewiston, Comandery at Bridgton, and a charter member of the Order of the Eastern Star at Norway. Mr. Hills votes the Republican ticket, and attends the Universalist church, and being active will be serving on several parish committees.

The members will meet in the afternoon at 3 o'clock to tack two quilts that are ready. At 6 o'clock a family supper will be served, after which the regular meeting will take place.

American Legion Auxiliary.
A card party open to the public will be held in Norway Grange Hall, Wednesday evening, Feb. 4, and an enjoyable time is expected. Something must be done to complete the Legion building and this party is in part for that purpose, putting on the roof. Members of the committee are as follows: Mrs. Hazel Conary, Mrs. Helen Denison, Mrs. Elizabeth Lohjov, Mrs. Anna Finesse, Mrs. Irene Luck and Miss Odell Roy.

A delightful evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Minnie Luck, when the American Legion Auxiliary met for its regular meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 23. Considerable new business was taken up and several bulletins read. Mrs. Minnie Luck was appointed chairman of the child welfare committee.

County Conference, to be held in Lewiston, early in February, was discussed to some length. It is hoped that the officers can all attend, and a large number of the regular members. It was voted that the Auxiliary pay the expenses of president, secretary, treasurer, historian and membership chairman.

A supper will be served at the next meeting, February 11, with the following committee: Mrs. Bella Fletcher, chairman; Mrs. Catherine Myers, Mrs. Edith Foss, Mrs. Alice Fuller, Mrs. Ponty Brown and Blanche Lafrance.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess assisted by Mrs. Harriet Luck and Alton Luck, served delicious refreshments.

There will be a Stated Convocation of Oxford Royal Arch Chapter, No. 29, Wednesday, Feb. 4, with work in the R. A. degree.

American Legion
Meeting of the American Legion Post, No. 83, was held Jan. 23rd, with special business. It was voted to send Mr. Hagerty to Boston, to secure equipment for the coming winter. The Legion has made this the very best offering that has ever been presented in Norway. Plans are also under way to remodel the new Legion Home in the near future. Reports from headquarters mentioned that a new three chair barber shop at Mechanic Falls and is lumbering on the side.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Brown and son, William, returned home Sunday night, after spending a few days in Portland. Mrs. Grant Abbott has been in Hebron a few days, called there by the illness of Mrs. Perley Doughty.

ECLIPSE PASSED AND THE WORLD IS SAFE

The solar eclipse arrived according to schedule Saturday forenoon when the moon started pulling down the shades at 8.05 o'clock. In this vicinity the show was not altogether a complete success, for clouds obscured the view about 9.15. When last seen only a thin crescent along the western rim indicated where the sun might be located. Adults swarmed to points of vantage and children interested in their first experience, gathered on the street to gaze skyward through bits of smoked glass. Contrary to expectation, the world was not plunged in darkness, due partly to reflection on the snow and diffusion of sunlight through the clouds.

Not even the brightest stars are reported to have been seen but lights were needed in offices and factories for perhaps thirty minutes.

The show started with a clear sky except for a small patch of fleecy clouds near the southern horizon. This patch increased rapidly and as the mass gathered in stratus, most beautiful color effects resembling iridescent mother-of-pearl attracted particular notice. Shortly before a curtain fell on the exhibition, the eclipse was easily observed without eye protection and the snow took on a peculiar yellow tinge with the sky a deep blue. For the superstitious the whole phenomena might bring on that creepy feeling attributed to haunted houses and isolated graveyards. If there was a drop in temperature the fact passed unheeded. With the mercury at zero or below, and accustomed to late of sudden changes, few people could sense any difference when the moon cut off, temporarily, the sun's supply.

Vivian Akers, the photographer, perched on top of Norway Opera House, exposed several plates. Stephen B. Cummings, an enthusiastic layman, also observed and made notes.

Astronomers tell us the program for Maine was as follows:

Sunrise ..... 7.21
Shadow of moon touched western horizon ..... 8.05
Edge of sun's face was covered at about ..... 8.19
Sun began to emerge from shadow with crescent on western edge ..... 8.23
Shadow continued to move to left until it passed from the face of the sun at ..... 10.37
Total duration of eclipse—2 hours, 32 minutes.

Cheer up, a total solar eclipse is predicted on August 31, 1932 when Maine will be favored and Portland will be on the line of the black mark. Let's anticipate better luck on the next visitation.

GRAND JURY MAY PROBE MYSTERIES

When the Oxford County grand jury meets two cases that have baffled local and county authorities may be cleared.

When Frank B. Goodwin, a Rumford merchant was shot and nearly killed as he was returning from his business one night in October, a search for his mysterious slayer began and for days the police sought every clue in hope of clarifying the matter.

Finally investigation was abandoned after several men had been questioned. County Attorney Hugh Hastings stated a few weeks ago that he and the police would conduct a secret investigation and that if the evidence gathered warranted it, the matter would be presented to the grand jury.

Paris, Feb. 10. It is believed that a Rumford man, who is questioned by the grand jury, may be questioned by the grand jury.

Last November Charles McKenzie of Livermore Falls was shot for carelessly shooting Donald Gordon of Livermore Falls while on a hunting trip at Cupiscopic.

McKenzie was released when the court deemed lack of evidence.

Gordon was killed by a bullet from a hunting rifle other than his own. Evidence, or lack of it, showed that McKenzie did not shoot Gordon. In this case, also, there was to be further investigation, according to Attorney Hastings.

The docket released by Clerk of Courts, Donald Hastings, indicates that the February term will be light and unless the indictment list is unusually large, the term will be short. Judge Charles I. Dunn of Orono will preside.

TO ASSIST TAXPAYERS

Harry T. Hall, Deputy Tax Collector, will be in Norway and South Paris for the purpose of giving assistance to the income tax payers as follows:

At Norway, Feb. 5 and 6; at the postmaster's office.

At South Paris, Feb. 5 and 6, at the Postmaster's office.

NORWAY GRANGE

Norway Grange was called to order by Worthy Master Buck, Jan. 24, at 1:40 P. M. Most of the new officers for the year were present.

Mrs. Annie Goodwin resigned from her office as Lecturer and Emma Packard was elected to take her place and was then installed by George Richardson, Past Master. The program was as follows:

LOCAL EXPRESSIONS ON CROSS WORD PUZZLES

Chas. Sargent: "My admiration for the Advertiser has subsided since it began printing cross word puzzles."

Dr. Staples: "I just threw a cross word puzzle fan but failed."

H. B. Foster: "I tried to be a cross word puzzle fan but failed."

Chief Giles Frost: "I don't monkey with them."

M. W. Sampson: "What is the purpose of the cross word puzzle?"

Bill White: "The cross word puzzle isn't a new institution. When I was a child in New York City, the New York World ran cross word puzzles in its magazine sections. I like 'em."

Julius DeCroteau: "A few weeks ago I made a remark about cross word puzzles. I want to take it back. I'm becoming interested in them."

Walter C. Smith: "All I hear when I get home at night is cross word puzzles. My wife and the children come for me with dictionary in hand and there is no let up till bed time. Even the baby has taken it and comes for my paper, pencil in hand, saying, 'Cross words, daddy, cross words.' When company comes in they all get to going. Guess I'll take the Radio and start for the stable evening and try the puzzle and join the rest of the family and see what fun there is in a puzzle."

Paul Brown to his mother (Mrs. Fonti Brown): "You have no brains." "Paul, what are you talking about, who said I didn't have any brains?" "Mr. Seavey said so." "He didn't say so," replied Paul. "I don't believe it. When have you been talking with Mr. Seavey and what does he know about my brains, anyway, I don't believe he ever said any such thing." "He did, Mamma, in the Advertiser last week." "The Advertiser?" exclaimed Mrs. Brown. "Yes," quietly replied the young son, "he said so of anyone who wasted time on cross word puzzles."

E. S. Cummings: "On being asked what his idea of cross word puzzles was, replied: 'I married a cross word puzzle twenty-five years ago and it has been cross words ever since.'"

HEN AND EGG STORY

Fred DeCoster, who lives a little way up Pike Hill, has 30 hens and pullets, Plymouth Rocks, and is getting an average of ten eggs a day for this month. Last year his flock laid over 1000 eggs. He says the average price for eggs for last year was about 40 cents per dozen. Most of the eggs were used in the family.

Years ago the average price of eggs was 16 cents per dozen and a profit of a dollar per hen per year was realized.

Howard Deoster, a grandson of the boy, who is attending school, paid $5.00 for a hundred eggs and a profit of $7.00 on the sale of the eggs. He had the experience and fun of doing it with a balance on the right side.

Charles Kimball's First Circus

"My first circus was at Bethel, that is the first and only real show I attended. I dropped beans for two weeks and got some money; I wore a white 'in-out suit' and walked from Andover to Bethel, 18 miles. I carried my dinner in a tin pail and hid it under Mill Hill and ate it after seeing the street parade. It was some show! Have never seen anything to compare with it since and I'm somewhat of an operator, too!"

Mrs. Etta Cummings of West Paris and Miss Edie Stone of Brighton have each sent us a cross word puzzle which we are going to print in the Advertiser but we are unable to use them because of the expense of getting the cuts made.

These which we are are sent from what we could have them made.

Somehow the snow has thus far been better handled on this end of Main St. than in former years. The C. Leavitt 'o. hauled his surplus snow and dumped it into the brook.

Blood affray on Pleasant Street. Both eyes of one boy were blacked and blood flowed in quantities from the nose of the other. The boys were preparing to attend the boxing match that night.

Dr. Ivan W. Staples: "I do enjoy listening in; I've got a good radio, can hear the alligators sing in the Florida swamps. I sometimes stay up late, and s' early, as 4 o'clock in the morning."

A civil service examination will be held Saturday, Feb. 7, at the High School for the selection of a clerk-courier for the Norway postoffice. The salary for the first year is $1400.

Joshua Witham was given a birthday party recently with the company of the survivors. His children and their families assembled at his home on lower Main St. for an evening of fun. A large birthday cake for the refreshments was provided. The cake was decorated with fruit and nuts, and the party was a most enjoyable one. The evening's entertainment proved enjoyable especially to Joshua, who was one of the liveliest present.

Walter Getchell of Preport will open a jewelry store in the rooms recently occupied by Walter Hutchins, the tailor. Irving Witham will do cleaning up. The work is done evenings at his home on Winter Street.

A hole is being drilled through the cement road to reach a suspected break in the water main opposite the store of Mrs. P. Ruffon. A hole sunk in the earth near the cutting has disclosed a large chamber under the cement, flumed out by the water.

Henry Smart, 10 years old, was given a watch by Eliot Fuller and the hair spring was fixed by Bert Hutchins and a chain presented by Main Street E. A. Greenleaf and now Henry is envied by his associates.

Arthur Tucker is attending the National Cammers' Convention at Cincinnati. The assessment of the coal lands of Mrs. Maude Kemmerling of Philadelphia, daughter of the late Dr. Charles Thompson, originally fixed by County Commissioners at $1,000,000, by County court today at only $35,000. The action follows the victory of Mrs. Kemmerling, wife of Admiral Kemmerling, in the Supreme Court. It is one of the most radical reductions in taxes ever ordered by the Cheluykill-County Court. The assessment fixed by the Court was based on the market value of the lands, which was about one-fifth of the amount which Scranton engineers testified the tract was worth. As the county tax rate is only 45 per cent. of the total, another big cut ensued.

Congregational

Between thirty and forty men under the direction of Stephen O. Jellerson canvassed the parish, Sunday afternoon, in an intensive drive for subscription pledges to the church budget. The workers and their wives, who could respond on short notice, gathered in the vestry after the canvass where an oyster supper was served at 5.30, prepared by L. I. Gilbert. Practically all remained to the evening service. Sum collected in pledges was $4,383.70. The budget calls for $5,176.00, including pastor's salary of $2,650.00, church overhead $2,526.00 and apportionment of benevolences amounting to $800. Pledges not received, H. J. collections and income from other sources probably will carry the sum far over the top.

The attendance was large at the service, Sunday evening, when the pastor's address was "The Episcopalian's Contribution to Larger Faith." After a brief historical outline the policy or government was considered. Order and beauty of service; good taste and decorum of worship; and beautiful architecture of the edifice were outstanding features emphasized. Retaining a firm hold on the historical past has done much to add dignity and true devotion to the service, according to the pastor. That this country and England with Canada, have been at peace so many years, has been due in a large degree to close relationship of the Episcopalians and the Church of England, was the pastor's belief.

Christian Endeavor Sunday evening at 6.30. Topic: "C. E. and the Expression of Friendliness," leader, Miss Floris Witham.

Holt, District Superintendent of the Augusta District. Mr. Holt's term of office expires with the next annual conference. This is the last time Mr. Holt will preside at a quarterly conference in the Norway church. An appropriate gift will be presented him at this time by the church. The committee in charge of the banquet expect those who are not solicited for food to bring pastry of some sort.

Episcopal

Holt, Mrs. Knox Bickford, Mrs. H. O. Holt, Mrs. James Kenyon Mrs. Tom Huston and Miss Marion Haskell. Mrs. Elliot Fuller, General chairman. The tables were very attractive with their white linen, silver and colored glass and scarlet candles, laden with cold sliced chicken, ham, mashed potatoes, cranberry jelly, pickles, cake, doughnuts, cheese and coffee.

Immediately after which the Parish meeting was called to order and it was with great regret that the resignation of Horace Cole, (after fifteen years of service of the church as Senior warden), was accepted. The officers elected were:

Junior Warden—Eliot A. Fuller.

Bethel 57; South Paris 44
The recently organized Town Team of Bethel snatched the prize from South Paris, Tuesday evening, in a struggle strongly tinged with local personal and otherwise. Action was fast and rough in spots. Bethel lost a regular and sub by the eliminating process and played half of the last quarter with four men, having no reserves.

For South Paris, Edmunds replaced Hanlon for breathing spell. Hanlon returned to the fray after missing part of the third quarter.

Goddard, one of Gould's basketkeepers, starred for Bethel as a fast floor worker and basket shooter. Frederick, the Academy coach and professional player easily came in for second honors as point getter and first on long shots. Van put up a nice defensive game but fell off in the personal foul fence. Bartlett worked hard in his position and found the hoops during the last quarter. Patterson, the seven-foot center, dropped baskets with little exertion but the personal rule provided him a vacation before the fourth period.

For South Paris MacDonald led in basket weaving but was most unlucky at the ring. In fact a heado followed the team and the peaky ball seemed betwined and stubborn. Carl Fuller and Hanlon about split even on the score book and put up a great floor exhibition. French guarded well and kept his man well covered. He also bagged two pretty 'throws from a rough field. Butts was keen in his position but failed to pocket numerous shots. Edmunds, who slid into play in the fourth session, fished well and proved a good worker.

AN OPERATION RECOMMENDED

Avoided by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I cannot give too much praise to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me. My mother gave it to me when I was a girl 14 years old, and since then I have taken it when I feel run down or tired. I took it for three months before my two babies were born for I suffered with my back and had spells as if my heart was affected, and it helped me a lot. The doctors told me at one time that I would have to have an operation. I thought I would try 'Pinkham's' and I call it, first. In two months I was all right and had no operation. I firmly believe 'Pinkham's' cured me. Every one who says me after that remarked that I looked so well. I only have to take medicine occasionally, not but I always keep a couple of bottles by me. I recommend it to women who speak to me about their health. I have also used your Sanative Wash and like it very much."—Mrs. E. Gould, 4000 East Side Boulevard, Los Angeles, Cal.

Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised.

For Colds and Coughs

It is important to use preparations which act promptly and which are harmless.

Resall's Laxative Aspirin Cold Tablets are very good for a cold in its first stages. They relieve the fever and headache which often accompanies the cold and also exert a valuable laxative action.

St. Petersburg Letter

Local Items of Home Folk in the Sunbelt South

Sunshine City, Jan. 19, 1925.

Under separate cover, by mail, I am sending a bunch of stuff. That's what I guess you'll call it. Most of the newspapers are so large and contain so much matter that it is not interesting. Yesterday's edition, 72 pages. Thought I would send some clippings, folders, cards, etc. Some of it may interest you and others.

As you know, we left Norway on that cold morning, Dec. 29. Arrived here on Thursday, Jan. 1, 5:30 p. m., 46 hours, minutes, Boston to St. Petersburg. Found it warm on our arrival, 72 above, some change in a few days. It's been warm all the time since we arrived, 60 to 80; most of the time 70 to 75. Had one rainy day since we arrived, Monday, Jan. 12, heavy rain all day.

We got located the night we reached here, in the same house and room as last winter. So we got settled quick. We traveled via Seaboard Air Line Railway. This road is greatly improved since I first came over it.

After leaving Jacksonville we found it grew warm fast and the country looked prosperous. Many cattle were grazing and looked in good condition. Hogs were plenty and in good shape. The razor back hogs have disappeared. Crops on truck farms were good and early. Harvesting the crop and planting the again on the same ground. Through the Plant City section, we passed through miles of great strawberry fields. The white blossoms and red fruit was a beautiful sight. Many of the fields were picking and at stations cars were being loaded for the northern markets.

St. Petersburg has had a wonderful growth the past year. They bore with a large they will fall through it some day. Real estate continues to be the great business. Agents are selling small and large tracts. Near St. Petersburg to 200 miles away. Have been busy meeting friends and acquaintances, and seeing life and its aspects in the North. I fully enjoy it.

Jan. 8, attended Maine State Society. Some 450 present. It was the annual election of officers. E. A. Whittier of Auburn, Me., addressed here, 825 8th Ave. No.—was elected President for the year 1925. Following election of officers and read the business, an entertainment and lunch with the get-together, got acquainted good time. Chas. D. Kidd, field secretary of the Maine Publicity Bureau, spoke on the value of advertising. At this meeting were:

H. Goodwin of Pittsfield, Me., brother of Stuart Goodwin; W. L. Finson, Mechanic Falls, a lumberman in the North, interested here in real estate, with Bartlett and others; Mrs. Allen, deceased, was a Norway boy, a son of Eugene and Warren; W. A. Bumington, Lisbon Falls, Me. When he found I was a man's hand-shake, he said, "Do you know F. W. Sanborn? I met him 20 years ago at Quimby Pond, fishing." Says he put you on the racket how to catch fish, wanted to see me and I told him of our pleasant fishing trips together. We had a pleasant chat, hark back.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mason of South Ave. North, Mr. Mason is at 125 6th since coming here. They like very much. Mr. Mason often. Mr. and Mrs. Holden of St. Petersburg are with them. Mr. and Mrs. Nye of Brockton, Mass., have a room in the house we are in. Mr. Nye is a contractor and builder. He tells me Henry Favor, brother of our James, mechanical teacher in the school at Brockton, Mass. He speaks very highly of valuable and leading citizens.

Fred Clark, I see often. He is busy looking after his interests here. He is a good nice auto rider with him and his wife. Their pleasant home is at 363 W. W. and N. W. Hamlin, Otisfield, live at 808 1st Ave. North.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Stephens of Rum, Me., are here, 625 5th St. South. S. C. Foster, former of Norway, is here for his health, at 615 W. St. Sumner Hancock and wife have an apartment in the Seven Gables Annex, near 809 9th and family, live and actively engaged in the real estate business. Profits on the right with them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Maxim have an apartment at 425 4th St. North, Howard works for Mr. Miller, 526 Central, says Howard is one of the best men he ever had in his employ. The Maxims are liking here.

Truman Stearns, formerly of Lovell, is a valuable man with the Pasadena Esplanade. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, daughter of Frank Cox, is at 617 5th St. South. Mrs. Frank McCarthy has a good position in a nice family. Think she intends to make her home here. Mr. McCarthy died last September. Mr. McCarthy and Mrs. C. H. Blake arrived here January 16. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mason them. The Masons arrived there to the Central Hotel where they are to stay, and took us to our room. I called to them this morning. He's not feeling very well. He's glad to be here and thinks he'll be O. K. soon.

Ernest Walker, Bethel, arrived Friday, Jan. 16. Is at Preston Hotel, Central Hotel where they are to stay, and took us to our room. I called to them this morning. He's not feeling very well. He's glad to be here and thinks he'll be O. K. soon.

I met men I knew in my active business life. We met and sat on the green benches of Central Ave. and pleasantly hark back. I am alone this evening. Bertha has gone to the Daughters of Pioneers meeting. Annual inspection of this Pent occurs in two weeks and Bertha has told me not to tell you anything—she January 20th, St. Petersburg papers 50 to 56 below zero in Maine, 42 in New Hampshire.

F. H. Noyes.

Another cold wave with high wind arrived, Friday. Moderate temperature, to falling mercury. Thermometers in early evening registered about 26 above, then slid rapidly until 10 below, reached before sunrise, Friday.

Light snow piled into drifts making hard traveling in the morning. This story equalling one of Norway's incubator hunters is told: "He was out hunting rabbits. He came to a brush pile. He thought there might be a rabbit under the brush. He began to dig up and down on it, to search out the rabbit. Suddenly he plunged through the brush pile, and fell into a cave. In the cave he found three men. He was making whiskey. He and the three men had the surprise of their lives."

What one of our town correspondents says: "We enjoy working on the crossword puzzles and hope they will be continued. The last one was a hard one and I have not enough done to send an answer."

Great Presidents

SCARCE IN UNITED STATES HISTORY

Don C. Saitz of the New York World runs through American history in The Forum and finds most of our Presidents sadly deficient in every way. In George Washington's administration scandals were plentiful and factional discords rancorous. Washington's fame was not helped by his Administration. No one can question his title to immortality—but not as a President.

Adams, who succeeded him was one of the coldest New England type. Little can be found in England type of Adams as President to prove that he even nearly approximated the ideals.

Of Jefferson it can be said that he was more concerned with enforcing his views than managing the affairs of government. He bought Louisiana and the Northwest from Napoleon and saved us the necessity of stealing it in later years. Jefferson's "embargo" brought great calamity upon our seaboard and his policy toward the Army and Navy left the country naked to the winds.

Madison produced the War of 1812 which almost caused a secession of the New England States. Monroe, who came after, remains famous as the inventor of a doctrine that has more than once threatened our peace, and has for more than a century been a source of offense to the South American republics. Briefly interpreted, under his enforcement, the United States will permit no one to "lick" our neighbors but ourselves.

John Quincy Adams' administration was one of discord and turmoil that did no good to the land. Under Andrew Jackson, the Electoral College became a rubber stamp, and the People entered the White House wearing their muddy boots and sitting on the carpet. The victors got the spoils. A woman upset Jackson's cabinet, and South Carolina came near to seceding.

Martin Van Buren, smooth, sly, and "foxy" played politics, and administration went to the dogs. William Henry Harrison, pompous and ill-informed, had no idea of affairs and died of cholera. John Tyler of Virginia then became the first Vice-President to fill the chief chair. He achieved the annexation of Texas, a sop to the cotton growing slaveholders and laid the foundations of the unjust Mexican War. James K. Polk put that conflict over with no justification that any historian could discover. Zachary Taylor lived only a few weeks after taking office. A dish of cherries and milk brought on a cold from which he did not recover and Vice-President Millard Fillmore of Buffalo, New York, took his place. Fillmore continues to be rated as a nonentity.

On a mighty wave of reaction Warren G. Harding rode into office. He was a plump printer from Marion, Ohio. Statesmen had died-out in Ohio and small men power. Harding was pushed into the White House by the crowd. With him, the boys all came back to the crib. He exerted himself in no way to interfere with the orgy. Deeply disappointed, the people at large would have rendered him but for his general by death. This gave them Calvin Coolidge. He is what they want—a "mean" little Yankee, sharp-eyed, close-fisted, who will cut down taxes, keep "good fellows" at a distance and stick to his job. He has a chance to meet the needs of the Nation as only two or three of his predecessors have done.

Clarence Files has moved his family to North Waterford for the winter, as it is more centrally located while he is hauling pulp from Bartlettboro to Keegan. V. H. Littlefield has a four horse team hauling pulp strips to the pulp mill at North Waterford and several teams hauling birch bolts to the mill.

Mrs. Henry Trimback has been ill for the past week with a severe sore throat. The physician lanced it, Tuesday, but she is confined to her bed at the present writing.

Solon McAllister is back on his job after having been confined to the house for a week with a very lame shoulder. Mrs. McAllister is also out after a two weeks illness with the prevailing epidemic. Nearly everyone who has been harvested and Ernest McAllister has been hauling sawdust from North Waterford, the past week to cover the ice and now hauling from the Oxford Box Co's mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farrington have a little son at their home, Master Norman Harold Farrington. Mrs. Nettie McAllister is caring for her daughter and little grandson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Raynor and Mrs. Edith Chapin entertained the Ladies Aid Thursday, at the vestry. A large crowd sat down to one of the delicious suppers for which the society is so justly famous. The supper was followed by an old fashioned concert which proved to be a very pleasant entertainment. The costumes and style of hair dressing of some of the ladies caused a great deal of merriment among the younger generation. Ice cream and candy were on sale during the evening. The party broke up at a late hour, all declaring it to have been one of the most delightful social affairs of the season, and the treasurer declared it to have been a profitable as well as pleasant evening for the society.
